Howard Gould to go to the Court of Appeals over questions of law involved in the suit brought by his wife, Katherine Clemmens Gould, for separation and support.
Mr. Gould obtained an order in the lower court permitting him to take the testimony of Helen Mar, former friend of his wife, but Mrs. Gould succeeded in having the order vacated by appealing to the Appellate Division.
The motion denied to-day was for permission for Gould to examine the testimony in this phase of the case reargued or passed upon by the Court of Appeals and for an order certifying this question for review by the highest court.
"Whether in actions for a separation in which the wife is the plaintiff," the conclusion of the plaintiff policy to her marriage in Indiana said marriage was

TERRY M'GOVERN QUILTS RING FOR ALL TIME.
 Terry McGovern has quit the ring forever. He is disgusted with the showing he made against Spike Robson last Tuesday night at the National A. C. when he failed to show any of his old-time form. McGovern was met by Joe Humphreys, his old manager, and told him he was through with the fighting game for all time.
